

NPN Documentation & Storytelling Fund Guidelines & Application Instructions

Application Deadline: April 14, 2023

Award Notification: May 1, 2023

Project Period: For projects beginning between May 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024

Eligibility: Artists who have received NPN Creation & Development Fund and/or NPN Artist Engagement Fund support between July 1, 2021 and March 1, 2023. Please note: At this time, artists who have received NPN Documentation & Storytelling Fund awards in previous rounds are not eligible to apply.

Purpose

NPN envisions a world in which artists have greater power and resources for self-determined, meaningful, sustainable careers. NPN seeks to build artists' power and contribute to narrative change by supporting artists in telling and controlling their own stories.

The NPN Documentation & Storytelling Fund aims to support artists' ability to document, promote, and share their work, ideas, and selves; and to create pathways to new opportunities for career advancement, such as creating work materials for a grant, sharing stories and ideas to develop collaborative relationships, or adapting a work for virtual presentation.

What Funds Can Be Used For

Our intention is to be flexible to artists' needs and support diverse ways artists wish to tell their stories. This could include recording, photography, or videography of your work; creating blogs, podcasts, articles, or essays about your work; putting together a press kit; paying yourself for time needed to document, write, etc. The Documentation & Storytelling Fund can address artist's needs as they adapt work for virtual presentation. Funds are not limited to projects that have received other NPN support (such as Artist Engagement Funds or Creation & Development Funds).

Examples of previous Documentation & Storytelling Fund projects can be found here:

<https://npnweb.org/2022-documentation-and-storytelling-fund-awards/>

What Funds Can't Be Used For

While funds can be used to adapt an existing work for virtual presentation, documentation, and other forms of sharing; funds cannot be used for creating or presenting a new performance or body of work. NPN has other programs that meet these goals:

- The NPN Creation and Development Fund <https://npnweb.org/programs/cdf/> supports the creation, development and mobility of new artistic work that advances racial and cultural justice and results in live experiential exchange between artists and community.
- The NPN Artist Engagement Fund <https://npnweb.org/programs/aef/> gives grants to NPN National Partner organizations, supporting artist fees for newly commissioned and touring works that advance racial and cultural activity.

Feel free to contact stanlyn@npnweb.org for eligibility questions!

Award Amount

Applicants can apply for up to $3,000. No match is required.

Decision Making

In previous years, NPN was able to fund all applications that meet the eligibility criteria. If by chance we receive more applications than our budget allows, NPN will convene a peer panel, who will fund 20 - 30 projects. Decisions are not made on grantsmanship, therefore, plain language is strongly encouraged. Applicants will be notified by May 1 2023. If NPN convenes a panel, they will review proposals using the following criteria:

- Appropriateness: The project supports the artists' ability to document, promote, and share their work, ideas, and selves. Funds are not being used to create a new performance or body of work. (See "What Funds Can't Be Used For")
- Potential Impact: The value of this project is transparent and compelling. It has the potential of creating pathways to new opportunities. The artist does not currently have extensive, current, professional documentation of their work. Artists who may not have access to other funding opportunities may be prioritized.
- Feasibility: The applicant has the ideas, relationships, and a plan.

DEMOGRAPHICS

NPN is required to collect certain demographic data about artist recipients of grant funds to understand how our support aligns with the diversity of the arts sector. NPN has adapted some of our demographic categories to align with its funders. As a movement builder it is important that there is consistent data collection field-wide. The categories and their definitions are based on the Foundation Center's Philanthropy Classification System, although we have adapted and supplemented their system in ways that make sense to our constituents and our needs. While we recognize that some of this data may seem personal, we ask that you respond to the best of your ability per the request of our funders. We also acknowledge that the terminology we use is imperfect and constantly evolving. We actively strive to update our demographic terminology as new information becomes available.
