The Creation Fund is Phase I of a three-part program that supports that advances racial and cultural justice and results in an exchange between artists and communities.

SECTION A: GUIDELINES

The Creation Fund supports artists creating a new work in its earliest stages, centering relationship building between artists, presenters, and communities. Creation Fund projects receive a minimum of $12,000 of unrestricted funding that supports the process and labor that goes into creating a new artistic work. The fund provides a framework for relationships to develop over time among artists, organizations, and communities. Through funds invested by co-commissioners and NPN direct subsidies, each project is eligible for multi-level support. The Creation Fund:

- Advances racial and cultural justice
- Provides holistic support for the creative process
- Expands access to commissioning support, equitable distribution of funds, and geographic parity
- Honors both long-term relationship building and cultivation of new, authentic, reciprocal collaborations between artists, communities, and/or commissioners
- Builds organizations' capacities to develop work
- Leverages other opportunities, such as additional funding, new presentation sites, and national awards

CREATION FUND STRUCTURE

Relationships are central to the Creation Fund, which supports new work in early stages.

- Artists apply for the Creation Fund with an NPN National Partner (https://nfnweb.org/network/?fwp\_network\_map\_types=national-partner) who will serve as the lead commissioner.
- At least one additional organization must agree to serve as a co-commissioner. This co-commissioner is a cultural organization in a different community from the lead commissioner (at least 100 miles apart to ensure that the work engages with multiple communities). There is no restriction on the maximum number of co-commissioners each project can have.
- Each co-commissioner contributes a $2,000–$3,000 cash match (depending on budget size) and agrees to present the work once it has been created within three years. Presentation may take many different forms, such as: in-person, virtual or hybrid presentations, exhibitions, etc.

- NPN matches these funds so that every Creation Fund artist receives a minimum of $12,000 of project funding.
- Creation Fund Projects are eligible for additional Development Fund support (up to $10,000) and mobility support (up to $5,000).

WHAT FUNDS CAN BE USED FOR

Unrestricted funds can be used for a variety of needs such as artist fees, collaborator fees, to pay basic life needs such as housing and food, research and development, materials, technical support, and/or anything else an artist may need to create a work. Funds cannot be used to present the work once it is complete, which is the responsibility of the co-commissioner.

ADVANCING RACIAL AND CULTURAL JUSTICE

NPN recognizes there are many strategies to advancing racial and cultural justice and will support a variety of approaches that benefit artists, organizations, and communities marginalized by current and historic systems of oppression, as long as they are explicit, transparent, and authentic. Furthering this goal may look like: commissioning an artist of color, a First Nations artist, an artist with disabilities, or a trans artist; supporting a project that deals with issues of racial or cultural justice; supporting a process that builds work with communities that have been underinvested in, etc. Before applying, please carefully consider how projects fit these goals.

Not every new work project fits the goals of the NPN Creation Fund. If the Lead Artist does not identify as a person of color, First Nations artist, an artist with a disability, or a trans artist, please consider the following before applying:

- How will this project advance racial and/or cultural justice?
- Why is racial and/or cultural justice important to you (the artist)?
- What is your (the artist's) history of working to advance racial and/or cultural justice and how do you currently work with your community to advance racial and/or cultural justice?
- Are the collaborators being paid fees by this project representative of the community you are engaging/serving?
- How are artistic, financial, and administrative decisions for this project made and who makes these decisions?
- What learning or unlearning are you doing as you work to dismantle white supremacy?

ROLE OF THE CO-COMMISSIONER

Each project must have a minimum of two co-commissioning organizations (one of which is an NPN Partner) in different communities (at least 100 miles apart to ensure that the work engages with multiple communities). Many projects secure more than the two required co-commissioners. Although projects need to be led by an NPN Partner, other co-commissioners can come from outside of the network. Co-commissioning organizations take many different shapes and forms, including presenting organizations, museums, galleries, producing artists, university departments, etc. Co-commissioners cannot be single individuals. If the artist applying for the Creation Fund is a staff or faculty member, or a company member of any of the co-commissioners, then a third co-commissioning organization must be identified. Any organization is eligible to participate as a co-commissioner as long as they meet the following requirements:

a) Commissioning Fees: Each co-commissioning organization contributes a $2,000 to $3,000 cash match to the project. Matches cannot be in-kind and must be paid to NPN no later than June 1, 2023. If a co-commissioner cannot pay the cash match by June 1, 2023, then the project should apply in a future cycle. Fees paid per organization:

Co-commissioning organizations
With annual organizational budgets less than $1 million	$2,000 each
With annual organizational budgets greater than $1 million	$3,000 each
NPN	$8,000

b) Commitment to Public Engagement

Co-commissioners commit to hosting the artist in a paid exchange of the co-commissioned work within a three-year period of the award date. This exchange can take any format, such as a public presentation, performance, exhibition, a series of workshops, and/or community residency, as long as it centers live experiential artistic exchange between the community, the artist, and the new work. Public engagement may take multiple shapes and forms, whether it be an in-person, virtual, or hybrid engagement. Artist fees for these exchanges are the full responsibility of the co-commissioner and should be paid to the artist in addition to co-commissioning fees. NPN offers access to, but does not guarantee, Artist Engagement Funds to NPN Partners to support artist fees for these exchanges.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA & LIMITATIONS

- Artistic projects must be in the early stages of creation, to be presented between January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2024. We recognize timelines may shift due to the ongoing pandemic.
- Artists who have received a Creation Fund after May 1, 2018 and/or have another Creation Fund in-progress are not eligible.
- Projects that advance racial and/or cultural justice (see topic on Page 2).
- Projects must culminate in an in-person, virtual or hybrid exchange between the Creation Fund artist and each co-commissioner’s community.
- Artists/companies based in the US and its territories or Mexico are eligible to apply.
- NPN Partners may participate as lead commissioner on one project per Creation Fund cycle, however they can participate as a co-commissioner on any number of projects.
- At least two co-commissioners (one of which is an NPN Partner) in different communities must be confirmed at the time of application.
- If the artist is a company member, staff member, or resident artist of one of the co-commissioning organizations, three co-commissioners (instead of two) must be identified (in different communities) to ensure visibility for artists beyond their home base.
- Each Co-commissioner has the capacity to meet the co-commissioner requirements, including paying out a cash match of $2,000–$3,000 to NPN by June 1, 2023 and presenting the work, through a paid public engagement, within three years. (Artist fees for the public engagement are the full responsibility of the co-commissioner and should be paid to the artist in addition to co-commissioning fees.)
- Artists and co-commissioners must credit NPN and co-commissioners for the life of the work in all marketing and promotional materials.

- In alignment with NPN’s commitment to creating an arts sector rooted in justice, we are committed to ensuring spaces, structures, and processes free of racism, transphobia, homophobia, ableism, misogyny, classism, or other bias. Our expectation is that all artists and co-commissioners receiving NPN support will honor this ethic.

APPLICATION TIMELINE

May 14, 2021	Application deadline
June 1, 2021	Award notifications
June 15, 2021	Earliest date for distribution of Creation Fund subsidies, per completion of grant management requirements
Jan 1, 2022	Earliest date for work to be presented/premiered
June 1, 2023	Latest date for co-commissioners to pay cash matches directly to NPN
Dec 31, 2024	Latest date for works to be premiered through public engagement. (We recognize timelines may shift due to the ongoing pandemic.)

SELECTION PROCESS

NPN will convene a peer panel of artists and cultural workers to select awards. Please note awards will not be made based on the language, grammar, or writing of the application. Additionally, projects will not be judged on artistic merit or career successes, but rather their alignment with NPN’s program goals and quality of relationships. NPN will fund 12–18 projects in this application round, prioritizing projects using the following criteria:

- Artists and co-commissioners who represent communities that have been historically underinvested in, including but not limited to communities of color, First Nations, disabled, trans, and rural communities.
- Projects that advance racial and/or cultural justice (see page 2).
- Projects that honor authentic long-term relationship building and/or cultivate new authentic, reciprocal collaborations between artists, communities, and/or commissioners
- Projects in the creation phase of development (as opposed to near completion)

ADDITIONAL NPN SUPPORT OPPORTUNITIES FOR CREATION FUND ARTISTS

- Phase II—Development Fund: Twice a year, NPN invites artists who have received Creation Fund support to apply for additional development support. Development Funds are artist-driven: artists may apply for up to $10,000 for team-based projects with a co-commissioner of their choosing, or artists may apply for artist support only, up to $5,000. Development Funds can offset a variety of needs when developing a work for public engagement. Guidelines are flexible in design in order to meet the unique needs of each project. Development Fund deadlines occur in September and March of every year and artists can apply once during the three years following their Creation Fund award. Please keep this in mind when applying to the Creation Fund.
- Phase III—Public Engagement: Once a work is developed, co-commissioners support artists through a public engagement of the new work, focused on an in-person, virtual, or hybrid exchange between artists and communities. NPN offers access to, but does not guarantee, Artist Engagement Funds for NPN

Partners to support artist fees for Phase III. NPN remains flexible with the definition of public engagement. NPN Partners should consult Artist Engagement Fund guidelines for more details.

- c) Annual Conference Support: NPN supports attendance for a limited number of Creation Fund artists at its Annual Conference, which is a forum to experience creative work, explore alternative models in arts presenting, learn about local communities, and address the most critical issues in our field.
- d) Other Types of Support: On occasion, NPN has discretionary funds set aside for NPN-supported artists through specific initiatives.

APPLICATION TIPS

- NPN understands that projects, timelines, and work may shift. Please use your best judgement when completing the application. If awarded, NPN will commit to the project, regardless of whether the project has to shift due to the pandemic and re-openings.
- Keep it clear and simple! We don't judge applications on grantsmanship, so use plain language, and don't feel the need to fill up all the spaces. Applicants can submit applications via written, video, or audio narrative.
- Be sure to give yourself enough time to secure the commitment of co-commissioners, collect information, and build the project timeline and budget.
- When completing the application, make sure to focus the request—narrative, timeline, and budget—on the Creation Phase of the project.
- Review SECTION B: APPLICATION GUIDE prior to completing the online application.
- Applicants can upload a project budget and timeline of their own, or use the template provided.
- IMPORTANT! Once you submit your application you will receive an email receipt of acceptance. If you do not receive this email, your application has not been submitted.

HONORARIA

NPN provides a $200 honorarium to artists who are not selected for their time spent on the application.

The Creation Fund was the first such award to Ananya Dance Theatre. The process of enlisting co-commissioners raised our visibility with those venues, and the Creation Fund award cemented in place a working relationship that led to subsequent residencies and performances in the commissioning communities. All of it—the NPN imprimatur, the funding, the opportunity to do it right, and the relationships—enhanced our standing in our home community and raised our visibility with national and international gatekeepers. –Ananya Dance Theatre

DEMOGRAPHICS

NPN is required to collect certain demographic data about artist recipients of grant funds to understand how our support aligns with the diversity of the arts sector. NPN has adapted some of our demographic categories to align with its funders. As a movement builder it is important that there is consistent data collection field wide. The categories and their definitions are based on the Foundation Center's Philanthropy Classification System, although we have adapted and supplemented their system in ways that make sense to our constituents and our needs. While we recognize that some of this data may seem personal, we ask that you respond to the best of your ability per the request of our funders. We also acknowledge that the terminology we use is imperfect and constantly evolving. We actively strive to update our demographic terminology as new information becomes available.
